

It is utterly ridiculous that I am forced to accept a package of 72 channels for $54 when I abhor several of them, think several are immoral and should have restricted broadcast, and I would personally only use about 15 of them and only about 5 on a regular basis. This situation stinks and should be rectified. A la carte or something close should be implemented immediately.